It is said that a messenger from burned all the bridges, and that the whole State was in a state of alarm.

I fear that there were many gentlemen, of our District, who possessed patri- otism equal to my own, and whose qualifi- cations for the responsible position in which you seek to place me, were far higher, but, much as I prefer to be of service to my country, I can not afford to be a burden to a country that is in a struggle with a whole nation. I therefore accept your invitation. For the
